Mr. Belden,
American Numismatic Society,
Broadway and 156th St.,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

In his application for a position with this Company, MR. A. H. COOPER-PRICHARD, of No. 350 Madison Ave., this City, has used your name as a reference, and we accordingly write to ask you to be good enough to furnish us with such information as you can regarding this gentleman, namely, his adaptability, promptness, attention to duties, including as well your knowledge of his habits generally---honesty, sobriety, etc., etc.

We thank you in advance for such attention as you may favor us with, and beg to remain,

Very respectfully yours,

BRENTANO'S

Mr. Thomas P. Heffley,
Brentano's,
5th Avenue & 27th Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of to-day's date has just been received. Mr. A. H. Cooper-Prichard was employed by this Society as Librarian for about one year, and left here as he desired to visit his home in England and be away for several months.

I am glad to recommend Mr. Prichard as a good worker with considerable knowledge in a good many different lines. I believe him to be perfectly honest, and his habits are good as far as I know. He is a man of pleasing address, and I always found him good natured and obliging.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:

The enclosed order reached us this morning.
We publish no such coin book as you desire, and would suggest your writing to T. L. Elder, 9 East 35th Street, New York, who I believe could supply you with a reliable book at a cost of about $1.50

Very truly yours,

Secretary
